PROJECT LEADERSHIP

Instructor's Name:

Dr. Sara Adel

King Faisal bin Abdulaziz Al Saud was born in Riyadh he's the third king of Saudi Arabia. I chose him as a good example of good leadership because he developed Saudi Arabia and people who live in Saudi Arabia in many directions such as hospitals, education and extending modern road network. He was a unique leader and his people loved him, which created a strong influence on them.

King Faisal was supreme commander of all military forces that tell us he's Authoritarian/ commanding leadership style, he can achieve results and productivity quickly and also, he's taking quick decisions and focus target to achieve close supervision.

The situation that influenced me to choose King Faisal as a commanding leadership is his way against his enemies when they ask to change his opinion and he rejects to change anything he thinks it's right.

In my work I follow coaching leadership style because I like to improve employee skills and create positive work place to get the best performance in work that make my team achieve goals and that what satisfied me.
