

Midwest Unknown University aspires to achieve excellence in online higher education and fulfill sustainable development goals to enhance quality of life. It aims to build a generation of leaders capable of contributing to community development through a unique educational model that leverages the latest e-learning technologies to disseminate knowledge and foster innovation in .management, information technology, media, and humanities