

Project:

- A group of people who work together in structured way for a shared purpose.

Functions of Project:

1. Production: Produce the products and work to matching the required standards and specify the costs, quality and high effectiveness to achieve the profit.
2. Marketing: They are the head of the spear because they display the product, its features, and its originality to costumers.
3. Human Resource (HR): Attract workers for the project and organize their work affairs, including salaries, tasks, etc.
4. Finance: It targets funds and attract it from the shareholders financing the project and contains accounts, salaries and other financial management departments.

Management:

- Management is the art of getting things done through other people.

Functions of Management:

❖ These four functions are in order and are not random:

1. Planning: It is the foundation because it sets goals and objectives and specifying it for the organization and laying down the necessary paths to achieve it and selecting those responsible upon.
2. Organizing: Establishing the organizational structure within the organization and defining the tasks, officials and their locations.
3. Leading: It is to monitor employees and motivate them positively while carrying out their work.
4. Controlling: It is setting the final plans and comparing it with the initial plan to correct the mistakes and deviations, if any. It is a previous and subsequent task for planning.

✚ The relationship between the Organization and Project is:

- These jobs are practiced in all companies of the world by 99% and may increase or decrease according to the needs of the organization of all kinds.
- The project, its primary function, is to achieve the main goal, which is profit and growth.
- The functions of management are to plan, organize and control to achieve the goal of the organization.