Assignment (1)

During our study about Leadership, we learned the difference between manager and leader, adding to that we studied traits, and styles of leaders and leadership.

In our first assignment, you will research and write about a modern project leader of your choice . Carefully consider his traits, styles, and detect any different situations for his/her leadership in today's organizations.

Your Task

1. Select a leader either a “good example or a bad example.”
2. Research your chosen leader, identifying evidence of his/her traits, styles, and leadership situations.
3. Write a four-paragraph essay profiling your chosen leader.
 - First, introduce your leader, and state why you selected him/her. Was their leadership effective or not effective?
 - Next, detect the traits and style of your leader, and why you chose that style for him/her?
 - Next, describe the leadership situation your chosen leader was in and so you chose for him that style?
 - Finally, conclude with a short description what is your personal leadership style and how effective it has been for you?

Best of luck..

Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela is an influential leader who was born at Umtata in Transkei district of South Africa. Mandela was born on 18th July 1918. Mandela's father, Gadla Mphakanyiswa was a chief. Since Mandela was a bright student, he proceeded to Fort Hare University. It is at the university that Mandela's leadership traits began to emerge. Mandela would fight for equality of all students in college. He would later proceed to spearhead the fight for democracy in South Africa. As a result, he qualified as the first democratically elected president of the republic of South Africa. He later led the country for five years. Today, Mandela is esteemed as an example of democratic leader.

Nelson Mandela, the name of a charismatic leader who spent 27 years in jail to bring down the injustice and oppression from South Africa. He was an anti-apartheid revolutionary activist and became the first black president of South Africa in 1984. His followers and the people of South Africa called him "Madiba," which means father. Mandela received more than 250 awards along with Noble Prize in peace. He is considered one of the most influential leaders with his strong values and style. He only worked for the betterment of his people and never hesitated to sacrifice.

Mandela was a powerful and influential leader. He had lots of admirable leadership qualities that are still gets recommended by others. And when it comes to his leadership style, it can be said that Nelson Mandela followed the transformational leadership style. Transformational because he believed and determined to bring among his people and the nation. And that's why he adopted to different situation and constantly changed himself to cope-up with those situations. Also, he cared for his followers. All his life, everything he did only for his people. But he had his own vision and never felt unwilling to say whatever he believed. He tended to stand by his principles.

In conclusion, I believe that my leadership style is to be charismatic adding value to my society and offering them supporting & help with scarifying. I am enthusiastic and excited about what I do. I set a clear goal and become determined to achieve the results that I am aiming to accomplish. Also, transformational is one of the important leadership styles that is influencing people by encouraging and motivating them for well upcoming and success. Those leadership styles have improved my life vision to better future & to be strong communicator including team player working with and helping all type of people.
