

Editor-in-Chief,

Midocean Journal

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am pleased to submit for your consideration the manuscript entitled:

"A Towards Environmentally Friendly Hospitals: A Management Model for Reducing Medical Waste and Increasing Recycling: An Analytical Study in the Context of Saudi Healthcare Facilities"

This research was carefully developed in accordance with academic standards and methodological rigor. It is based on a comprehensive review of the literature and a SWOT analysis, through which a theoretical administrative model is proposed to support modern trends in medical waste management across healthcare institutions. The study addresses a timely and critical issue, aligning with the national efforts to promote environmental sustainability within the healthcare sector and reflecting the goals of Saudi Vision 2030.

All formatting and referencing requirements of Midocean Journal have been strictly followed, including the use of APA 7th edition citation style, structured abstract, organized chapters, and the official journal template. The references used are a balanced combination of Saudi, regional, and international peer-reviewed sources, ensuring the originality and relevance of the content.

I sincerely hope this work meets your standards for publication and look forward to having it reviewed by your esteemed editorial board.

Thank you for your time and consideration.

Author: Adel Ali Hammas

Academic Degree: PhD Degree

Institution: Midocean University

Email: adelhammas@gmail.com

Phone Number: +966555301883