My name is Ahmed Saleh Labani, I work in tourism and hotels, I am 40 years old, I live in the holy city of Makkah, and I am not married. I like to travel to various countries, and the best country for me is the Arab Republic of Egypt and I have a home there and I want to develop myself by completing my studies, And attend courses that are offered online, Among my hobbies are swimming, painting and shopping.

I started my career in retail management, but a few years ago the project management field attracted me. I have always been adept at bringing people together and working towards our common goals. As my successful experience in leading teams and managing stores made me think of entering the field of management,
