Instructor's Name:

Dr. Sara Adel

My leader, His Royal Highness Prince Mohammed bin Salman. He is ideal for a good leader. In addition, he is creating the vision of the Kingdom of 2030 and leading it relentlessly to completion, he has a clear and exciting idea of where to go and what he is trying to achieve and he is excellent in strategic planning. A visionary prince has the perseverance to move forward when times are tough. It focuses on the big picture and is also blessed with stability. This is exactly where most "ordinary dreamers" fail.

The prince also has the advantage of following up projects even in their smallest details, and we do not forget what the director of the Daraya project said that the prince is one of the rare leaders that I dealt with, as he is familiar with the details of the project so that I review my information before entering it, as he always repeats the success of our vision, starting from the citizen and the resident, and this indicates his desire for All success.

Why did I choose the style or style for it?

because it has all the ingredients for a visionary leader.

I chose this method because he is the leader of our vision and inspiration, and he wants Saudi Arabia to be a great country that achieves the vision for its citizens. And as the people of the homeland told us, such as the Tuwaiq Mountains.

I help the employees improve their individual strengths by giving them new tasks, offer them guidance, or meeting them issues discuss and offer valuable constructive criticism, very effective with employees, and get their tasks done as quickly as possible.
