Nelson Rolihlahla Mandela

Nelson Mandela, an anti-racist South African politician and revolutionary who served as President of South Africa from 1994 to 1999. He was the first black South African president, elected in the first multi-ethnic, multi-ethnic elections.

- Mandela fought racism and became a first black president of South Africa, also his leadership effective.
- Mandela has two style of leadership (Affiliative Leadership Style and Coaching Leadership Style) he has ability to emotional, mental and physical health of his people also connection, harmony, and conflict resolution. I think the is the best leadership style because gives the positive impact to the people.
- Mandela effect is an unusual phenomenon where a large group of people remember something differently than how it occurred.
Also the most thing how Mandela effect and change their believes.
- My goal of leadership is to effect in positive impact to people around me and I think the coaching leadership style is more close of my behavior.
