(Discuss the retaliation ship between Functions of Management and function of project)

(ناقش العلاقة بين وظائف الادارة ووظائف المشروع)

Functions of project is a field to practice the functions of management, which means the functions of project is practicing the functions of management in every function from the functions of project, for example, marketing function needs to be planned, organized, led and controlled in order to the success of its work, and so on for the rest of the functions.

These functions are operated to accomplish every project function with high efficiency.

Then the relationship between the the functions of management and the functions of the project is a strong relationship based on establishment and implementation of project functions by operating management functions, which is: production, marketing, human resources and finance.
