Assignment (1)

During our study about Leadership, we learned the difference between manager and leader, adding to that we studied traits, and styles of leaders and leadership.

In our first assignment, you will research and write about a modern project leader of your choice . Carefully consider his traits, styles, and detect any different situations for his/her leadership in today's organizations.

Your Task

1. Select a leader either a “good example or a bad example.”
2. Research your chosen leader, identifying evidence of his/her traits, styles, and leadership situations.
3. Write a four-paragraph essay profiling your chosen leader.
 - First, introduce your leader, and state why you selected him/her. Was their leadership effective or not effective?
 - Next, detect the traits and style of your leader, and why you chose that style for him/her?
 - Next, describe the leadership situation your chosen leader was in and so you chose for him that style?
 - Finally, conclude with a short description what is your personal leadership style and how effective it has been for you?

Best of luck..

Diego Armando Maradona*¹

Because I believe that football is a project!

- I think when we want to speak about Maradona, we don't need to make an introduction about him, suffice it to say that he is Maradona.

There are many reasons to choose him for a leadership assignment, perhaps the most important of them is how can he encourage his member team to make a victory.

Absolutely, He was the best effective leader in the football world.

- For this kind of leader, it cannot be limited to one style, he has more than 3 styles of leadership.

He has a Pacesetting leadership style if we talk about a short-term project as the FIFA World Cup 1986 tournament, High-performance, pace, and quality. (Champion of World Cup 1986)

Also has a Transformational/Visionary leadership style, he is wearing this character for a long-term project like the Italian football league, inspires the team to work, requires different skills (which is not easy), extraordinary outcomes (2 times champion of the Serie A*² with the club and team has never won it before).

Before the 1994 FIFA*³ World Cup in the USA, Henry Kissinger*⁴ insisted on having Maradona in the World Cup (Because he believes that fans will not attend the World Cup in his country without a charismatic figure like Maradona who can attract the crowd) *⁵, knowing that Maradona stopped practicing a sport for several years! and this is what happened, Maradona had played in that tournament while suffered physically, However, his Charismatic leadership was so bright for the fans when the medical team taking him off from the field due to a positive sample of drugs, which made his team eliminated from the tournament with defeat. He made everyone believes that the future will be better with him literally.

- About a specific attitude for him is so difficult to choose only one situation, but if I have to choose, I am going to choose his second goal against England, in World Cup 1986.

(Goal of the Century), despite that goal was legendary because he instantly made an impossible decision, we should know that Argentina was at war with England in the Falkland Islands, that game was like a victory on the game field and the war!

- In my vision, leadership is how to inspire others to do their best work.

I found myself between Affiliative leadership & Laissez-faire leadership, that what I learned in my career from my first manager, he was so smooth with us, motivate, and modest, everyone in his team has his job description that means he never asked anyone about his work if there is any delay because everyone wants to be nice with him like his treating with us (working by love for him). I know those styles not working usually with major of people but in my opinion, the employee has the right to go evening from work with a smile and come the next day morning with a better smile, as a leader I have to provide and ease that for him. (Love works miracles).
