Team communication manage and control

Main goal is to coordinate work within team members to achieve more deliveries with high efficiency for more customers satisfaction. First step is to acquire a team that has good knowledge of procedures, routes, traffic variations during the day, and leader skills to manage the delivery teams. Second approach is to delegate tasks and provide directions to the team. Work will be more organized and more productive sharing the challenges faced and discussing how to avoid them on weakly bases and that's the third part of the plan. Moreover during the execution of the project, keeping the team members knowledgeable of the stage reached, volume of work remaining deliveries. Another execution important task is tracking obstacles and potential hazards and preparing the team to face it on field, and take the necessary measures to resolve it, and most important aspect is having everyone believing in our moto of teamwork "one team one dream".
