Instructor's Name:

Dr. Sara Adel

1. Select a leader either a “good example or a bad example.”

CEO of Urban Development Company

2. Research your chosen leader, identifying evidence of his/her traits, styles, and -leadership situations.

Dominant.

He dented the team's spirits, was under pressure, and stressed by a lack of knowledge of the expectations

And not listening to the whole team

1. Write a four-paragraph essay profiling your chosen leader.

The leader is the former CEO of my company.

The reason for choosing the president was that it was the reason for the delay in implementing the project from 2011 to the date today, due to making wrong decisions, conflicts of interest and making decisions quickly without listening to the advice of the team. So his leadership was ineffective.

it has an attractive and unrealistic leadership that is very connected to the character of the leader. That led to him getting out of control.

Pacesetting Leadership Style

- This is ‘lead by example’ (do as I do, now).
- Leader is highly focused on performance and expects the same of the team.
- Works best with teams that already perform at a high level.
- Role model, high standards.

My personal style of staff leadership is democracy with complete control over decisions.

This style helped me consult, gather information, and make a correct decision>
