I would like to talk about my work direct manager Mr.Akram which he represents one of the leaders on the department.

Mr.Akram is a manager of a team of four employees and we are working in planning department. His task to manage, monitors, review and control the orders fulfillment from supplier to the customer.

Authoritarian leadership style is applied on Mr.Akram as he doesn't follow up with the team, no planning process or review, the blame is always on the team and always avoiding to take any responsibility or risk.

This style which is used by Mr.Akram has many impacts on the team, the team is not motivated to work hard, feeling insecure all the time and no backbone to lean on once there are some difficulties.

In conclusion, leadership is not something to control people or a team with. Leaders must make a group to achieve a goal with an inspirable and motivational spirit.
