I chose a coaching leadership style

When I worked in ARAMCO I have met unforgettable boss his name is Mohammad, considered as a coaching leader, always he starts his day with smiling, it makes you feel comfortable and not hesitate to ask him about considering issues and this style of leadership is very active for all kind of employees to encourage them to work with their high ability of satisfactions.

He is always creating very positive work place, he has a lot of patience to deal with the new employees and teaching them so they can master their work effectively and efficiently positive which leads to make an effective them with great connection among them, the impact of this style is make you work with no fear or hesitation.

I remember a lot of situations but one effecting on me more than any situations, one day I made a mistake in preparing the contracts that nearly canceled the entire contract but when I asked about these point in order to consult him he explain to me that is sensitive point in contracts, and he began to training me on preparing contracts under his supervising.

I prefer (coaching leadership style)
