Aster Star Project

Introduction

A project management is defined as the application of knowledge, skills, tools, instruments and techniques to project activities in order to achieve the requirements of the project. Project management is done through the application and combination of the numerous logically grouped project management procedures containing the 5 Process Groups: initiating, planning, executing, monitoring and controlling, and closing.

Aster Star is dedicated to offering a quality choice for people looking for plant and garden supplies, and serving contractors who require a dependable source of products. Aster Star offers a wide variety of plants, trees, vegetable plants, together with a selection of garden supplies. Most of the plants that are sold are going to be grown in Aster Star greenhouses. With a convenient location Aster Star aims to efficiently market to the residential customer, contractors and renters.

Aster Star would like to see a 5-10% increase in its customer base every year. The marketing strategy includes offering a staff with complete knowledge, reasonable prices, a great location, and top customer service.

Results and Discussion

Food and plants are basic and vital elements, so much so that food as well as those offering food are valued and respected in the country. Aster Star is devoted to offering a wide variety of plants and trees in an aesthetic setting. Customer service is tremendously significant. Aster Star want each customer to having a nice and pleasant shopping experience, and it is the purpose of our staff to answer questions with expertise and to provide guidance when the feel it is required.

These are some of the prerequisites to be comprised in the vegetable business plan. In the future there is a lot of scope for development for the vegetable selling business, provided the business owner has a plans the business efficiently from the beginning.
